

Eye on Polish photography by Krzysztof Candrowicz

The lecture and slideshow on Polish photography. The presentation consists of 20 Polish artists (historical & contemporary). The second part of the lecture will bring also the practical information about major photographic institutions, festivals and events in Poland and Europe.

contemporary polish photography >> brief presentation

Biography of the lecturer:

Krzysztof Candrowicz

Lodz Art Center, Fotofestiwal, The Union of European Festivals of Photography, Lodz, Poland

Krzysztof Candrowicz is a founder and director of Lodz Art Center and Foundation of Visual Education in the city of Lodz in Poland. The foundation has started organization of the International Festival of Photography in 2001 and now is preparing the thirteenth edition in 2014. Every year during the festival he coordinate 50 exhibitions and a numerous workshops, lectures, slide-shows and movie presentations. As a director and chief curator of this event, he established an association of 30 European festivals of photography, called PHOTO FESTIVAL UNION. The organization is responsible for common activities of European photo events, such as annual meetings, publications, photographic exchange and common promotion. From October 2005 he became also a director of Lodz Art Center, which will start its activity in May 2006, as a center of international art exchange in Poland. The website addresses: www.fotofestiwal.com (festival), www.festivalunion.com (the union of European festivals), www.lodzartcenter.com (art center).